

Brandi Renton is the Assistant Vice President for Organizational Behavior in the University of North Texas's Division of Finance and Administration.

She oversees a team that proactively addresses and responds to organization behavior by providing division-wide assessments, and facilitates improved planning, training and communication.

Prior to her current position, Brandi worked in Human Resources for UNT starting as a generalist, then as a manager and then as the campus director. Before coming to UNT, she worked in human resources for United Methodist Retirement Communities, the Lear Corporation and Collins & Aikman.

Brandi received a BS in Industrial Health and Safety from Oakland University in Rochester, Michigan; and an MBA from Lawrence Technological University in Southfield, Michigan.