

Dr. Kimberly “Kim” L. Laird serves as the Associate Vice President and Controller for the University of Texas at Dallas (UT Dallas). She provides leadership and support to the Office of Budget and Finance and is responsible for managing the following areas within the division: Student Financial Services, Payroll, Accounting and Financial Reporting, Financial Management Services, and Business Intelligence.

Prior to her current role, Dr. Laird served as Assistant Vice President and Chief Budget Officer for UT Dallas and Comptroller and Director of Accounting for A&M-Commerce. Before pursuing a career in higher education, Dr. Laird served as a financial and technology leader in a variety of industries including wholesale, retail, banking, large construction, and public accounting.

Dr. Laird is a member of several academic and professional organizations, including the Academy of Management, the Southern Management Association, the Association for the Study for Higher Education, the American Educational Research Association, the American Institute of Public Accountants, the Texas Association of State Senior College and University Business Officers, and the National Association of College and University Business Officers.

Dr. Laird holds a B.S. (Accounting) from UT Dallas, an MBA (Strategic Leadership) from Amberton University, an Ed.D. (Higher Education Leadership) from A&M-Commerce, and is a Texas CPA. A passionate supporter of public higher education, Dr. Laird also teaches in the graduate higher education program at A&M-Commerce.